

Distribution Equipment

If you are looking for information about Distribution Equipment and services in the Electrical Engineering and Contracting Industry, you've come to the right place. Power Testing Limited offer services including HV and LV switchgear maintenance, installation, testing and repairs.

Click here for more information on Distribution Equipment

Wherever you are, whatever you do, Power Testing Ltd can provide the necessary back-up services.

From initial design through installation, commissioning, operation, maintenance and repair to final decommissioning, Power Testing Ltd can supply all services necessary for electrical power networks.

From the largest of industrial plants to small commercial installations, Power Testing Ltd can offer solutions, guidance and an effective on-site presence.